- 1 Pip and his friend decided that London was too dangerous for the wanted man. They thought that Pip should take him abroad. AS they attempted to board a ship, he was caught by the police. At his trial in court, he was sentenced to death by the judge. Before he could be hanged, he died in prison. By law, all his money belonged to the government. So Pip had to find a job to support himself. He became a clerk in his friend's office.
- 2 In London Pip studied hard. He received money regularly but he did not know where or who it came from,. He lived in flat with a young man who had little money but who worked for an insurance agent. They became friends. After some year, Pip was visited by the prisoner whom he had helped as a child
