

Give answers the following questions: (12)

- 1 What is meant by the “right profession”?
- 2 In past, why did people want to become a doctor, and engineer or a pilot?
- 3 Nowadays non-traditional careers are more appealing to young minds? Why?
- 4 How can career counselors help the young people?
- 5 What were some famous careers for the young people in the past?
- 6 Which of these professions have interested you the most? Why?

Translate into Urdu: (10)

- 1 Mass communication is certainly one of the fastest emerging industries in the world. This field is highly rewarding in terms of both respect and money. Unlike other disciplines mass communication does not require a particular line of study, you may join this field after completing your BA, BCom or Bsc etc. Fashion and designing have now emerged as a separate industry number of universities are offering degree programmes and diplomas in fashion designing.
- 2 Parents are unaware of market trends, educational systems and the scope of any particular discipline. Similarly 14-15 years old students are not mature enough to make such life-changing decisions. So it is widely felt that career counseling must be promoted from school level.