- 1 During the perilous journey it was very difficult for anyone to supply food to the Prophet Muhammad. It was so delicate that the slightest mistake could have endangered the life of the Holy Prophet. This grand task was nicely undertaken by Hazrat Asma the daughter of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique. Every night, with the pack of food she would quietly venture towards the rugged mountains in which lay the cave of Thawr.
- 2 On the night of the migration a tribal chief of disbelievers, Abu Jehl, in a fit of fury headed towards Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique's home. He began knocking at the door violently. Addressing Hazrat Asma, he demanded, "where is your father?" She politely replied, "How would I know?" This response shows the wisdom and courage of Hazrat Asma. She didn't make a statement that would give him a clue.
